

Program goals for all PUBH students are as follows:

Program Goal #1: Students will demonstrate effective oral and written communication skills

Objective: Students will demonstrate effective Oral communication skills and effectively utilize electronic methods for communication

Objective: Students will demonstrate effective written communication skills

Program Goal #2: Students will have an understanding of the principles of Public Health practice

Objective: understanding of fundamental principles relevant to current knowledge and research in Public Health

Objective: perform basic Computational Analysis

Objective: understand Epidemiological methodology

Objective: demonstrate an understanding of basic marketing principles

Objective: Students will have knowledge of Public Health in relation to social historical, political, and/or economic contexts

Program Goal # 3: Students will be able to demonstrate appropriate, ethical and professional behavior when in a role as a Public Health Professional

Objective: Demonstrates appropriate behavior: shows up for work consistently and follows instructions by carrying out duties, and displays professional behavior and attitude while working as a Public Health Professional

Objective: to use critical thinking in professional decision making

Objective: Students will demonstrate Cultural competence when working in the Public Health Sector

Objective: Students will develop the ability to demonstrate leadership when applicable

Write clear, cogent and correct sentences and paragraphs

3. Students will be able to critically discuss the social dimensions (political, economic and cultural) of American health care and policymaking
 - Understand major health-related trends and concerns
 - Understand major approaches to health care reform
 - Perform simple diagnostic and procedural coding
- 4.