Program, as well as to house students who have shown the maturity and grades to have dorm rooms in a four-star resort. It will also continue to host non-student guests, and its golf course and facilities will once again host the LPGA ShopRite Classic in the beginning of June.

The resort has hosted the event several times in the past, as Galloway has proven capable of hosting major undertakings.

Stockton has shown its commitment to the community with a donation of $300,000 to compensate for its tax-exempt status as it pe
