

Ocean City's Richard Tolson Appointed to CRDA

The union leader will serve on the Casino Reinvestment Development Authority.

Tweet 0

Email

Print

Comment

Related Topics: Richard Tolson

Gov. Chris Christie on Thursday (Oct. 4) appointed Richard E. Tolson of Ocean City to serve on the Casino Reinvestment Development Authority (CRDA).

Tolson is director of Bricklayers and Allied Craftworkers (BAC) of New Jersey. He is also vice president of NJ AFL-CIO, and a member of the Steering Committee for the William J. Hughes Center for Public Policy at the Richard Stockton College of New Jersey.

Tolson, a 1976 graduate of Ocean City High School, was born and raised in Ocean City. He and his wife, Sonya, reside in Ocean City.

The CRDA is charged with investing a portion of Atlantic City casino revenue into New Jersey communities.

Tweet 0

Email

Print

Follow comments

Advertise

Advertise on Patch and reach potential customers in your backyard and beyond. Click here for more information.

Learn more »

Volunteer

Patch Info Get in Touch

Richard Tolson has been appointed to the Coastal Resources Development Authority (CRDA) in Ocean City, NJ. Tolson, who has a long history in the community, will be responsible for overseeing the authority's operations and ensuring the protection of the coastal environment. The CRDA is a key organization in Ocean City, responsible for managing the city's coastal resources and promoting sustainable development. Tolson's appointment is a significant milestone for the community, as he brings with him a wealth of experience and a deep commitment to the well-being of Ocean City. The CRDA will continue to work closely with the city and other stakeholders to ensure the long-term health and vitality of the coastal environment.