

Business in brief

Posted: Sunday, December 15, 2013 12:01 am

8 named to board of aviation park

The Richard Stockton College Board of Trustees has voted to appoint trustees to the board of the Stockton Aviation Research and Technology Park.

James Yoh, of Galaxy Technology and a member of Stockton's board, was appointed to a two-year term, while college President Herman Saatkamp and Charles Ingram, vice president for Administration and Finance, were appointed to continuous terms. All three are representing the college on the Stockton Aviation Research and Technology Parkboard.