GALLOWAY TOWNSHIP — Andy Dolce, founder of Dolce Hotels and Resorts, is now serving as chairman of the advisory board of the Lloyd D. Levenson Institute of Gaming, Hospitality and Tourism.

Dolce's appointment was made at a meeting Wednesday. Also at the meeting, three new board members were announced: Mablum, publisher of The Press Atlantic City; Scott Kreeger, president and chief operating officer of Revel Ca-Hotel; and Rick Mazere regional president and general manager of Harrah's Resort.

Dolce Hotels and Resorts manages conference centers, hotels and resorts, including Stockton Seaview Hotel and Golf Club.

The Levenson Institute provides research, training and a forum for policy discussions regarding the region's gambling and tourism industries. The organization also hosts the annual Jersey Shorecast, which provides a forecast for the region's tourism season.
