

UN SO' GRI' TAT' IO
MI HELLEBRU E IP

NOR HFI LD

enne y, of Brigantia, is ready to meet 'encees after a heated primary election.

Harrison concedes to Kennedy in a surprising twist to 2nd District Democratic primary

“That’s what primary is all about. It’s your own stance and your own voice.”

“We are where I am. I’m in the attention of Ocean County. I’m in the Democratic primary.”

He said he will support Kennedy.

“What my campaign is about is education, strong education,” Van Drew said. “And a strong supply chain.”

In a concession video, Harrison said he wanted to encourage the party to defeat Van Drew.

generally in their remarks to her.

She has not yet heard from state Senate resident Steve Sweeney, she said, who supports Harrison, but hopes to talk to him soon.

Some voters insist on going to polls despite vote-by-mail election

On Wednesday, Sweeney released a statement on Kennedy's win.

“ I
ef
congratulate Hillary and look forward to her victory in November.”

ohn Foonjian, executive director of the Wi iam

by dropping out, leaving five Democratic candidates in the race to attempt a

! " # $ %

&

---

