The Government Affairs committee continues to plan for the Million Student March during Higher Education Awareness Week this semester. Additionally during HEAW, Deon will be initiating a collaboration between the Government Affairs committee and the Career Center to create a program to assist undecided students navigate a career path and major. The Government Affairs committee also will be hosting a panel that discusses global perspectives on political commitment and civic engagement by ujqyecukpi" kpfkxkfwcnøu" rgtuqpcn" uvqtkgu" cdqvw" rqnkvkecn" fkuugpv." htggfqo "qh" urggej." gve0" Ike is currently working on a project to show solidarity with the residents of Flint, Michigan as they go through the water crisis.

Maryam attended the William J. Hughes Center for Public Policy Steering Committee meeting on Friday, December 4 in which we reflected on the accomplishments of the fall semester and plan for this upcoming semester, including the new legislators in residence and other major events, to be announced. Maurice continues to update the constitution and make revisions as they are approved by the full senate. If you see any provisions of concern or that need to be corrected, please contact him directly.

As it pertains to the student activity fee budget, the Government Affairs committee will also look at methods and solutions that would allow all students attending academic and organizational conferences be affordable and accessible. Fundraising, personal contributions, and club contributions will be capped by percentages or in a manner that would balance the budget and allow all students to invest an equal share in their commitments to organizational and academic conferences. We would also like to welcome our newest member Kim Emanuele - we look forward to working with you in the exciting semester ahead!
